A little about how the name Va Presto became our name, our brand and our philosophy!

"Once upon a time, in a small Italian village, lived an old cook named Nonno Gino. He didn't really run a restaurant, just a kitchen open to the street. One morning, a green and white Vespa came tearing down the road and stopped in front of his counter..."

About Pinsa

Pinsa is an ancient Roman style flatbread with an oval shape, light, crispy on the outside, soft on the inside. Unlike a classic pizza, its dough is made with a blend of wheat, rice, and soy flours, and left to rise for over 48 hours. this long fermentation and unique mix make it easier to digest, lower in calories, and full of flavor.

In our traditional recipe we are using the highest quality of flours directly imported from Italy. Its airy texture gives it rustic, handmade feel.

Less heavy, more refined, pinsa is pizza's delicious, modern cousin!
